This image displays a bass guitar tablature for the song 'The Colour of the Sound' by Leisure. The score is organized into ten horizontal systems, each containing one or more measures of music. The measures are numbered sequentially from 33 to 80. The notation includes fret numbers (e.g., 3, 5, 8, 10) placed on the staff lines, with stems and flags indicating the rhythm. Slurs are used to group notes across measures, and some notes are marked with a '5' in parentheses, likely indicating a fifth fret. Vertical bar lines separate the measures, and some measures contain multiple stems, suggesting a complex rhythmic pattern. The tablature is presented in a clean, black-and-white format.

This image displays a bass guitar tablature for the song 'The Colour of the Sound' by Leisure. The score is organized into measures, with measure numbers 81 through 98 indicated at the top of each line. The notation includes fret numbers (e.g., 3, 5, 7, 8) and rhythmic markings such as slurs and accents. Below each staff, there are vertical bar lines representing the fretboard, with horizontal lines indicating the fret positions for each note. The tablature is presented in a clean, black-and-white format, typical of digital sheet music software.
